

Reaction Paper #3 Evaluation of Group Process

Due Date: 12-9

Value 15 Points each

Length Requirement

Your essay should be three to five pages long, typed, and double spaced. This excludes the cover page and the reference page.

Grading Criteria

Papers will be graded in terms of the following information.

- Applications made to your own personal experience
- Integration of course concepts,
- Use of critical thinking,
- Citation of three outside sources excluding the text relating to the topic.
Sources are cited in the body of the paper and listed in the Reference page.

Deadlines

No paper will be accepted after the due date under any circumstance, so please select your topic carefully and plan accordingly. See handout on Helpful Suggestions for Papers.

Prompts to answer in your essay

Analyze your final group process you just completed considering the following questions:

- Which strategies did we learn in our class that was useful in your group process?
- Analyze the effective and ineffective outcomes of your group members in your presentation.
- What changes will you make in your next group process based on this group presentation?
- Which group project outside yours had the best class presentation? Explain why you selected that group.